atle and Alliance Candidates in th Counties-A Split in Norfolk and me Dissatisfaction in Orange.

OCKEVILLE, Va., October 15 .- The potical situation in Orange county has much a it to make Democrata uneasy. Mr. leorge S. Shackelford, the Democratic e for the Legislature, is opposed by T. B. Frazer, an independent candi-ate and a member of the Alliance. It is open secret that the County Alliance at eeting just prior to the Democratic primarice resolved unanimensly to enter the primaries and abide by the result, and declared broadly against placing a distinct-ively Alliance candidate in the field as the opponent of the Democratic nominee.

PRE OF THE PARTY.

Hundreds of good Alliance men are standing true to this determination; but Mr. Frazer, who was present at the County Alliance when this action was taken and assented thereto, now stuitifies himself by taking the field as the foe of the Democratic party. The Limestone-Valley sub-Alliance has endorsed him, but beyond this there is nothing to indicate that he will receive the Alliance vote.

THE CAUSE OF IT.

THE CAUSE OF IT. There is some dissatisfaction in the Democratic camp, however, much of which is due to the manner in which the primaries were conducted, and Democrats must bestir themselves if they would win. Mr. Shackelford is out in a card declaring his purpose to do all in his power to promote the agricultural interests, and citing his record in the last Legislature to prove the sincerity of his professions.

NORFOLK COUNTY DEMOCRATS. wo Conventions Held-S. E. B. Stewart

the Regular Democratic Nominee. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

Nospolk, Va., October 15.—There was a split in the Democratic Convention of forfolk county to-day and two conventions were leded. S. E. B. Stewart, of Pleasant Grove, was cominated by one faction, and J. W. Bidgood, of Western Branch, by the other.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:
The Democrats of Norfolk county are jubilant over the nomination of Stewart. Hon, John M. Berkley, chairman of the party, will be serenaded to-night.

NO OPPOSITION TO PULLEY.

. Magette, the Alliance Candidate is uthampton, Declines the Honor.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Franklin, Southampton county, Va., October 15.—R. S. Maggette is out in a card in te-day's issue of the Nonthampton Democrat declining to run as an independent Alliance candidate for the House of Delegates from this (Southampton)-county against F. F. Pulley, the regular Democratic nomines. Mr. Mugette was a candidate for the Democratic nomination before the convention that nominated Mr. Pulley. The Alliance afterwards met and nominated Mr. Magette as its candidate. This decimation leaves Mr. Pulley without an opponent, and it is not thought that he will have any opposition on election-day. REAR END RAILROAD COLLISION.

WHATA PHY!

A beautiful fawn, the property and pet of little Miss Nellie Walters, of Gordonsville, strayed away from home a few days ago and was chased by dogs to the neighborhood of limiters's Station and there shot and killed by a countryman, who supposed it to be wild. The animal was just about to have been presented in the name of petus Miss Nellie to the Gypsy-Park Association, of Stamton, where airangements had already been male for its reception, and hence its summary taking-off its mourned both here and in the Valley.

at 5 octock P. M., that ELEGANT RESIDENCE.
WITH THE VERY LARGE AND EXTRAHANDSOME GROUNDS, situated as above and occupied by Major Dooley.

On the first ideor are the parlor, sixting-room,
dining-room, library, pantry, &c.—all very handsome, the library being elaborately, tastefully,
and expensively finished, perhaps the prottiest thing of the kind in the city. On the second floor are four chambers, bath, &c.; and on the third are three chambers. The halls are spaceous and the stairways broad and easy.

The house is heated by a furnace and open fireplaces. The large and conspicuously-beantiful grounds are situated on an attractive corner, commanding a splendld view westward along Franklin street, and are well set in trees,
shrubbery, and flowering-plants.

In the rear, on a wido, paved alley, is the most excellent stable, with room for four horses and two vehicles, and above are two servante recurs
and a feed-room.

THIS PROPERTY, beautiful in itself, enjoys a pre-eminently commanding position as regards convenience and healthfulness of location, soplanned with special reference to confort and convenience, and is now in perfect order. There is also a LARGE BRICK STABLE AND CARRIAGE-HOUSE on the premises. The LOT fronts on Nineteenth street 58 feet and runs back 124 feet to a wide paved alley. We will take pleasure in showing this property to any one before the hour of sale who may de-sire to purchase.
